PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCERS AND MATCH ANALYSTS

JP DELLACAMERA

A legendary soccer broadcaster, Dellacamera brings decades of experience to the booth as FOX SPORTS' lead game analyst, covering 14 FIFA World Cups™ (nine men's, five women's), including nine consecutive FIFA World Cups™.

ALY WAGNER

A former mainstay with the U.S. Women's National Team, a Women's FIFA World Cup™ veteran and a two-time Olympic gold medalist, Wagner serves as FOX Sports' lead game analyst. Last summer, she made U.S. television history as the first woman to call a men's FIFA World Cup™ match.

DEREK RAE

A prominent veteran broadcaster, Rae calls his 11th World Cup™. He was most recently with BT Sport in the UK and can be heard often on the world English feed of matches from Bundesliga. Rae was elected as lead commentator for the UEFA Champions League and Europa League EA Sports' FIFA19, the world's most popular sports video game.

DANIELLE SLATON

Slaton played soccer for the U.S. Women's National Team from 2000-05, earning a silver medal at the 2000 Olympic Games and a bronze at the 2003 FIFA Women's World Cup™.

JENN HILDRETH

Hildreth boasts an impressive resume of broadcast and playing experience across several different sports. Hildreth has served in play-by-play, color analyst, host and reporter capacities in her coverage of soccer, spanning international, college and the U.S. professional women's soccer leagues NWSL, WPS and WUSA.

KYNDRA de ST. AUBIN

St. Aubin has been a part of the sports broadcasting landscape for almost two decades covering men's and women's soccer, college football, basketball and softball. Currently the only female television analyst in Major League Soccer (MLS), de St. Aubin is in her third season as color commentator for Minnesota United FC.

GLENN DAVIS

Davis, a 25-year television veteran and former professional soccer player, calls his sixth World Cup™ this summer. He is the voice of the Houston Dynamo's local TV telecasts and hosts a weekly radio show, "Soccer Matters with Glenn Davis" on Houston's KFNC.

ANGELA HUCLES

Hucles won two Olympic gold medals and played in two Women's World Cups™. During her seven-year career representing the U.S., she played in 109 matches. During the 2008 Summer Olympics, she led the U.S. team with four goals, two of which came in the semifinal victory over Japan.

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCERS AND MATCH ANALYSTS (CONT'D)

LISA BYINGTON

Byington is a multi-sport play-by-play announcer. Last summer, she made U.S. television history as the play-by-play announcer for the first-ever all-female announcing crew for a U.S. men's pro soccer match, calling FS1's presentation of D.C. United vs. New England Revolution.

CAT WHITEHILL

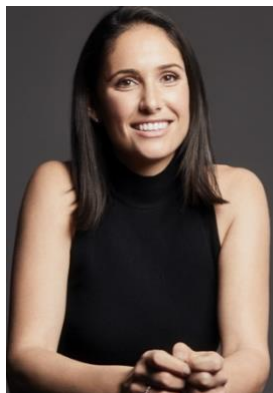

Whitehill, a 10-year veteran defender for the U.S. Women's National Team, participated in the 2003 and 2007 FIFA World Cups and 2004 Olympics. At the 2007 Women's World Cup, she led the U.S. team in minutes played (2,116) and played every minute of all six Women's World Cup™ matches.

STUDIO ANALYSTS

ENIOLA ALUKO

Aluko is a forward for Serie A club Juventus. She made 102 appearances for England from 2004-16 and competed in three FIFA Women's World Cups™, two UEFA Women's Euros and the 2012 Summer Olympics.

ARIANE HINGST

Hingst is a two-time Women's World Cup™ champion with Germany. She played in four World Cups™ and made 173 international appearances throughout her career. Hingst was the youngest player on Germany's 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup™ squad.

ALEXI LALAS

Lalas, a U.S. Soccer Hall of Famer and standout U.S. Men's National Team defender during the 1994 World Cup™, works his sixth straight FIFA World Cup™ as a studio analyst. In 2018, Lalas made history as the first-ever soccer analyst to be nominated for a Sports Emmy in the Outstanding Sports Personality category.

KARINA LEBLANC

LeBlanc is an Olympic bronze medalist with a prestigious career that spanned almost 18 years at the international level. As a member of the Canadian National Team, she participated in five FIFA World Cups™ and two Olympic Games. In 2018, she was appointed Head of Women's Football for Concacaf and its 41 countries; which include all of North America, Central America and the Caribbean islands.

HEATHER O'REILLY

O'Reilly is a World Cup™ and three-time Olympic Gold medalist. As one of the most successful players in U.S. Women's National Team history, she played in 231 matches and ranks seventh in assists.

LESLIE OSBORNE

Osborne, a retired U.S. WNT defensive midfielder and member of the 2007 Women's World Cup™ team, makes her second World Cup appearance as a studio analyst.

CHRISTIE PEARCE RAMPONE

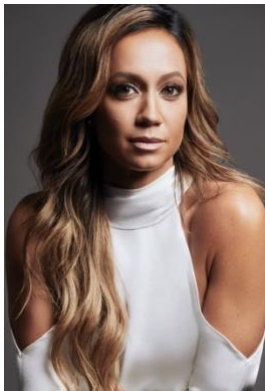

Rampone is a two-time World Cup™ and three-time Olympic gold medalist. Over the course of her illustrious 20-year career and as the longest-serving captain of the U.S. Women's National Team, Pearce Rampone made the second most appearances in the history of international women's soccer, with 311 caps.

KELLY SMITH

Smith is arguably the greatest women's soccer player in England's history, recording more than 100 international caps and a record 46 goals. She competed in three UEFA Women's Championships, two FIFA Women's World Cups™ and one Olympics.

STUDIO HOSTS

KATE ABDO

Abdo is an accomplished multilingual journalist who has covered some of the most high-profile events around the globe, including FIFA World Cups™, UEFA Champions League Finals and FIFA Ballon d'Or ceremonies. She came to the network from Sky Sports in the UK.

ROB STONE

Stone is the lead studio host for FOX Sports' soccer, college football and college basketball coverage. The 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup™ is his third World Cup™ as lead studio host. A recent inductee to the CT Soccer Hall of Fame, Stone was an All-Conference midfielder for Colgate.

JENNY TAFT

Taft is a moderator on SKIP & SHANNON: UNDISPUTED, host of CFB: INSIDE SLANT and reporter for the network's college football and soccer coverage. A lacrosse player at Boston University, Taft's on-air career began with FOX Sports North before she joined FS1 for the network's launch in 2013.

TWITTER HOSTS

KARINA LEBLANC

LeBlanc is an Olympic bronze medalist with a prestigious career that spanned almost 18 years at the international level. As a member of the Canadian National Team, she participated in five FIFA World Cups™ and two Olympic Games. In 2018, she was appointed Head of Women's Football for Concacaf and its 41 countries; which include all of North America, Central America and the Caribbean islands.

AARON WEST

West, a video journalist and former Davidson College midfielder is known for his passionate opinions on the game and exploration of its connection to culture at-large.

CORRESPONDENT-AT-LARGE

JENNY TAFT

Taft is a moderator on SKIP & SHANNON: UNDISPUTED, host of CFB: INSIDE SLANT and reporter for the network's college football and soccer coverage. A lacrosse player at Boston University, Taft's on-air career began with FOX Sports North before she joined FS1 for the network's launch in 2013.

GRANT WAHL

Wahl is one of soccer's leading journalists, a senior writer covering the sport for Sports Illustrated and best-selling author. He contributes to FOX Sports' coverage of the U.S. Men's and Women's National Teams and was part of the network's on-air lineup for the 2018 World Cup™ and 2015 Women's FIFA World Cup™.

With 300 square meters of space and 120 Gbps of data connectivity, the IBC is home to 150,000 pounds of equipment shipped from the United States, England and Germany, including:

- Remote Operations Center (ROC) – the heart of FOX Sports' in-country operation. The ROC encompasses international and domestic connectivity between FOX Sports sites, connectivity to FOX Sports in-venue operations, as well as other media rights licensees
- Telestream Lightspeed Live Capture workflow, enhanced by IBM Aspera® FASPStream, providing all FOX Sports content into Reach Engine Levels Beyond. Enhancements this year include direct upload from the field to via Reach Engine using Aspera file transfer
- FASPStream, Lightspeed Live Capture (1080p/50 and UHD 2160p/50)
- Reach Engine Premiere Panel, allowing for faster access to the content for FOX Sports editors in Los Angeles
- Aspera now available for all transfers, including within the Lightspeed Live, Reach Web UI and Reach Prelude Panel integration
- Auto archive with FASPstream for real time archiving to the Cloud, significantly reducing time on-site post-match
- UHD/SDR 5.1 surround sound for all matches

- All venue contribution via Ethernet using LAWO equipment
- LiveU Bonded cellular transmission capabilities for four ENG crews in-country with seven cameras total

Los Angeles Broadcast Center

Production is finished and distributed from the Fox Pico Network Center in production trailers and a technical fit-out custom designed for the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup France™

- Facilities, including control rooms, stages, and edit bays, have access to all content generated in France within seconds for live-show support and feature/highlight editing
- Building on the workflows rolled out for FOX Thursday Night Football production, all playback, VIZ graphics, highlights and craft editing come from Los Angeles
- Facilities also include match control rooms, rules expert commentary and Libero analyst tools

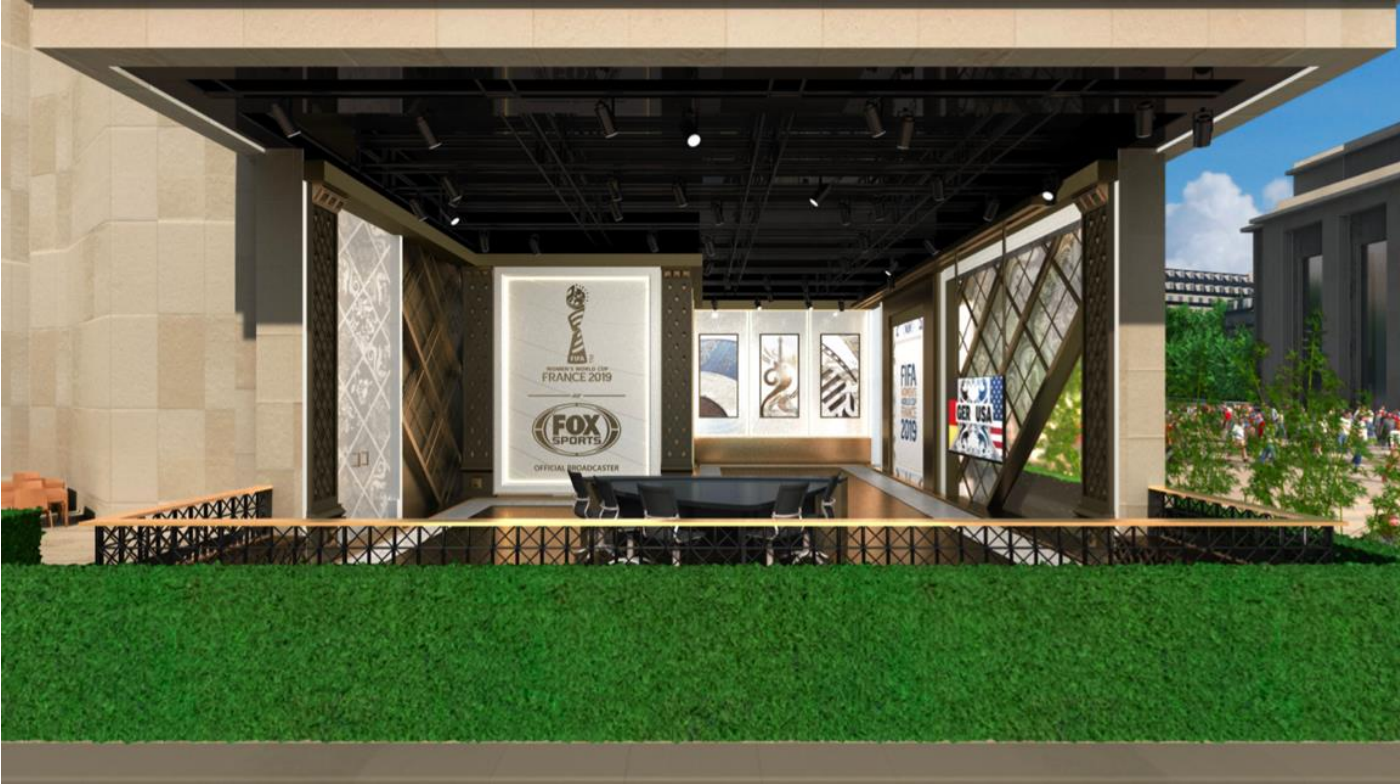

Remote Crews

Crews will follow the United States and other teams of interest across various locations with FOX Sports announcers, connecting to the IBC via IP fiber connectivity
